Job Overview

Summary

Customs & Border Protection (CBP): Securing America's Borders

Do you desire to protect American interests and secure our Nation while building a meaningful and rewarding career? If so, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) is calling. DHS components work collectively to prevent terrorism, secure borders, enforce and administer immigration laws, safeguard cyberspace and ensure resiliency to disasters. The vitality and magnitude of this mission is achieved by a diverse workforce spanning hundreds of occupations. Make an impact; join DHS.

Discover a challenging and rewarding career in CBP, the sole organization responsible for securing the nation's borders. At U.S. Customs and Border Protection, we:

- Screen passengers, vehicles, and shipments entering our country
- Seize illegal narcotics, vehicles, and agricultural products
- Prevent unauthorized entry into the country
- Rescue individuals who fall into dangerous conditions traversing our border

For more information about CBP's mission, activities, and careers, please see <http://www.cbp.gov>.

Joining the Customs and Border Protection Office of Field Operations will allow you to use your expertise to detect and prevent terrorists and instruments of terror from entering the U.S. This position starts at a salary of $88,316 (GS-13 Step 01). Apply for this exciting opportunity to strengthen Homeland Security by performing law enforcement activities that enforce the laws and regulations related to the import and export of agriculture, commodities and baggage entering and/or exiting the United States.

Who May Apply: Current U.S. Customs and Border Protection employees with competitive status within the local commuting area.

- The local commuting area is defined as the area surrounding the duty station by which people reasonably travel back and forth from home to work.
- For definitions of terms found in this announcement, please see http://www.dhs.gov/xabout/careers/gc_1303762131481.shtm.

Organizational Location: These positions are located within U.S. Customs and Border Protection, Office of Field Operations, Miami Field Office, Miami, FL (Seaport) and Fort Lauderdale, FL.

One or more selections may be made using this job opportunity announcement. Further selections may also be made for additional organizational divisions and/or units within the duty location listed above.

Duties

In this second-line supervisory position you will become a key member of a team of Homeland Security professionals detecting and preventing terrorists and instruments of terror from entering the U.S. Typical work assignments include:

- Planning, directing, coordinating, assigning , organizing and evaluating all work activities conducted regarding the full range of activities relating to the importation or exportation of plants, plant products and miscellaneous articles of restricted agricultural commodities and animal by-products by passengers and their baggage, foreign mail and all means of conveyances at Ports of Entry.

- Directly supervises a team of first line supervisors and perform a full range of supervisory functions.
- Manages technical and operational activities regarding the full range of functions or programs supervised.
- Provides guidance and training, communicates intelligence and enforcement information, disseminates new procedures and policy changes and identifies areas of special emphasis.
- Makes decisions on work problems presented by subordinate supervisors or team leads.
